

Everything I Touch Turns To Ash.

With all my hate, it's just a matter of time. And when I dream, it's not often I stay alive. It makes me think I should throw it away... It makes me think I should throw it away, in my head, things are terrible, I'm always so bored, I feel dead. You ask me when, or do you think you love me yet, and I don't know what to say, I don't know what's been going on. I know that, I don't deserve half the things that you see inside me, I kill everything, you'll leave once you see the real me. Can you be my angel, it's on you if I depart, I don't want to help you, I can barely fucking start. All I feel is anger when I listen to my heart. Every single thought, it's really tearing me apart I don't cry no more, let your spirit sing, best to let me go, I tried everything, save me save me save me save me save me one more time, I'm not worth the wait, even crystals grow, garnet matched with jade, little spark and fragile bone. Say what's on your mind, I'm not anything, you should let me die, please forget my name, while I bleed out alone Oh, I know I'm a waste of life- but despite all this wasted time, I'm beginning to think I can tell you what's been going on. I don't know why you're always going on and on, if I could stand it I would just get up and run away. I can't handle the blame I put on myself, if I could I would take it and run away. Now I know that you're not who you wanna be, doesn't matter I'll take you along with me. I listen in, yes I'm guilty of this, you should know this, I broke down and wrote you back before you had a chance to- forget, forgotten, I am moving past this, giving notice. I have to go, yes I know the feeling, know you're leaving. Promise I'll make you cry- I know, I hate everything about myself. Promise that I know, I don't care if I make you cry. Make you cry- promise that I don't, I swear I'll make you cry. The drugs don't work at all, finished all my alcohol. Your love's so camouflaged- I'll be your match, lets play with fire and aerosol. Baby, my skin can't stand this, my eyes see damage, I think I need you right now. I don't know why I even try anymore, I wish you'd, chew me up and spit me out on the floor. I really thought that you'd get better with time, I knew it'd, take a while but where's your life without mine? You won't change, I gave you time and space- you don't care, I see it on your face. I hate that everybody watches while I'm turning to stone, like, you push away you'll end up dying alone. And the way you let me die and tried to say that you helped, I can't give you any love if you got hate for yourself. Hold me underwater, I won't struggle to breathe, as long as it's with you, I would be happy to leave. Running so hard not to have to come home- tear me apart, you make me feel gross. Been on my own- I wake up, you'll be gone, I know. Wanna see me as an angel, I don't think the same, no your love to me is painful. Really hits me when you doze off, I'm not in love, only love you with your clothes off. Been on my own, same so long done getting up hope, my heart's not close to what you think no, when you wake up I'll be gone you know. Sedatives, tearing up on the phone, I know you're sensitive, my skin is better off on its own. Smell your skin, sugar rush in my nose, I can't make sense of it, I'm half a body with empty bones. And you said that you could handle it, so now I'm wondering if that's true. It's past tense, dont die at my expense, I think I'm better off without you. I don't need more love, I got hate and bad friends. I hold on the more we keep calling, any way you look at it I've really got to let you go. And I tear up the more you keep talking, can anybody look at me and tell me things things I don't want you to see. Cutting off me. I've been saving drugs to use knives, I use them just to cut my you actually read- these are which I am too scared to they're done. I have hope that you are confidence which that I should know? I don't think that I can hide my face, I think that would be freedom for them at a time like this- I got hella skin. I wonder how much of this all lyrics from songs I wrote, post online even though always been scared. I able to find the I so deeply lack.
